WORSHIP TEAM

There are several songs sung during the meal both before and after the main mealtime. Please look through the meal booklet to see when they occur. Chords and music are given below. To hear the melodies of the Jewish songs, go to www.totheends.com/music.html. As far as we know, all these songs are in the public domain.

Toward the end of the meal, there is a time of praise: The Hallel (Songs of Praise). For this section, prepare any appropriate songs that are known to most of the participants.
